

HOW THE FUCK DO I STYLE THIS?

THE RULES

1. Cut out the words from the grids labelled “Bag 1” and “Bag 2”.
2. Put the Bag 1 words in one bag (or box, tub, cauldron, or whatever receptacle you have to hand). Put the Bag 2 words in a second.
3. Each player or team picks one word from each bag.
4. Each player/team has one minute to come up with:
 - a. A swearsy compound formed from the two words. They may be used in any order.
 - b. A preferred style choice — closed (one word), open (two words), or hyphenated.
 - c. A definition.
 - d. An example sentence.
5. Each player/team reads their answers out to everyone else.
6. Hilarity ensues. Offensiveness is also likely to ensue.
7. The winner of the round is the player/team with the best answer, as decided by the whole group.
